Hi Nigel,

We only had the Saturday and Sunday off.

Regards the delivery, in all honesty it's the best services we have seen on a slab pour in a very very long time, to say you guys batched and added the 45kg/m³ of steel fibres in at plant 360m³ in by 3.30pm. I'd have no hesitation in recommending Ever readymix to anyone all of the RO Engineeria team are looking forward to our next project together.

I am just awaiting on images for the slab to be sent over after its final clean.
